

Recent News

- Thermal Chicago's district cooling service continues to expand. The following chart shows a total increase resulting in 11% growth over the last six years. Also, Thermal Chicago has expanded the capacity of its plants by about 12%. New buildings added to the system house an interesting mix of occupants including commercial office, hotel, residential, retail and entertainment. With these new customers, Thermal Chicago serves about 45,000,000 square feet of space in some 100 buildings in the downtown Chicago area.

Thermal Chicago Contract Capacity

- LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) has become an important aspect of the design and operation of buildings throughout the United States. Thermal Chicago works with its existing and prospective customers to determine how district cooling service can help achieve LEED goals.
- Thermal Chicago Corporation is a member of the international District Energy Association (IDEA). As such, it participates in industry-wide programs related to the education and implementation of district cooling and heating. The district energy industry is growing nationally and internationally. Please go to www.districtenergy.org to learn more. (link to video)